

Class of KidsPost Questionnaire

Attention all teachers and schoolkids: Would you like to be featured as the Class of KidsPost?

Each month during the school year, KidsPost will publish the opinions of one class of students from the Washington area. Here's your chance to be heard!

All you have to do is fill out this questionnaire. (It's available for download at kidspost.com). Teachers can submit individual questionnaires from each student or one questionnaire that tallies the class responses. We also need a photograph of the class. This can be a group shot or something taken during a particularly interesting activity.

Questionnaires and photos must be sent only by a teacher, principal or other school representative. E-mail them to kidspost@washpost.com and put "Class of KidsPost" in the subject field or send them to KidsPost, The Washington Post, 1150 15th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20071.

Thanks for participating; we can't wait to share your opinions. Classes that are featured will receive a History of Washington KidsPost poster and KidsPost pencils for all students. Teachers who have any questions can e-mail us at kidspost@washpost.com

Name of school:

6. Do you have a cell phone?

Grade and name of teacher:

Number of students:

7. What's your favorite pizza topping?

1. Who is your favorite author?

8. What's your favorite ice cream flavor?

2. What's your favorite TV show?

9. How often do you read KidsPost?

A. Every day

B. Several times a week

C. Just on Sundays

D. Never or almost never

3. What's your favorite game?

4. How much time do you spend on the Internet each week?

A. More than four hours

B. Two to three hours

C. Less than two hours

D. Don't use the Internet

10. What do you want to be when you grow up?

5. What's your favorite web site?

11. What's the biggest problem in the world today?