

HIV Diagnoses

Of the 16,130 cumulative AIDS cases in the District of Columbia, according to the Administration for HIV Policy and Programs, most were among men who have sex with men.

Cumulative AIDS diagnoses in the District by transmission, as of 2004

Men who have sex with men and intravenous drug use

SOURCES: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, Administration of HIV Policy and Program