Covenant Aviation Security is proud to present the 2010 CAS March Madness Tournament consisting of three separate competitions for the following workgroups: PAX/Dual Function Screeners (DFS), Checked Baggage/OSARP Screeners, and Behavioral Detection Officers (BDOs). Through multiple rounds of single-elimination competitions, screeners competed on Threat Image Projection Simulator (TIPS), TIPS Ready X-ray (TRX), image recognition, prohibited/permitted items, screener practical skills, and covert tests, eventually advancing through the brackets to meet in the Final Four.

NORTH DIVISION CHAMPION

Joseph Bautista

Hire Date: 06/12/2008
 Anthony Nguyen / Terminal Manager T3
 Ismael Gutierrez / Supervisor

Joseph Bautista has looked strong through this year's tournament with convincing wins over Dusan Forgac, Jeremy Beckham, Matthew Deocampo, and Kenneth Palter. After getting by Charles Lehrer in the Sweet 16, Bautista struggled to take out Terminal 1's Tristan Perez (13). In a squeaker, Bautista finally prevailed by removing the last competitor from T1 in the PAX/DFS Competition. Bautista is the only Dual Function Screener in the Final Four, taking the North Division.

WEST DIVISION CHAMPION

Moises Nowell Rodriguez

Hire Date: 11/10/2002
 Russell Mackey / Terminal Manager IT

Moises Nowell Rodriguez is the last Supervisor standing in this year's competition. Rodriguez got past Edna Wun, Elizabeth Nickerson, Ceasar Deocampo, and Joyce Gui before running into a difficult challenge from Lead Screener, Aristotle Saunders, in the Sweet 16. After three sudden-death tiebreakers, Rodriguez got by Saunders only to face a couple more tiebreakers against screener standout, Charles Henry, in the Elite 8. In a brutal "SOP Jeopardy" round, Rodriguez showed his experience and strength under pressure to move into this year's Final Four and takes the West Division. Rodriguez is also a CAS Plank Owner.

EAST DIVISION CHAMPION

Branton Tso

Hire Date: 06/08/2009
 Anthony Nguyen / Terminal Manager T3
 Rudy Cacho / Supervisor

Branton Tso is the Cinderella story of this year's tournament. After only 10 months with CAS, Tso defeated some tough competition: James Reclus, Anna McCormick, Jacqueline Gilg, Judith Bryant (one of the highest seeded female screeners in this year's tournament), and Lisa Prasad. In the Elite 8, Tso competed flawlessly against No. 38 Joel De Los Reyes to storm into the Final Four taking the East Division.

SOUTH DIVISION CHAMPION

Michael Agostinelli

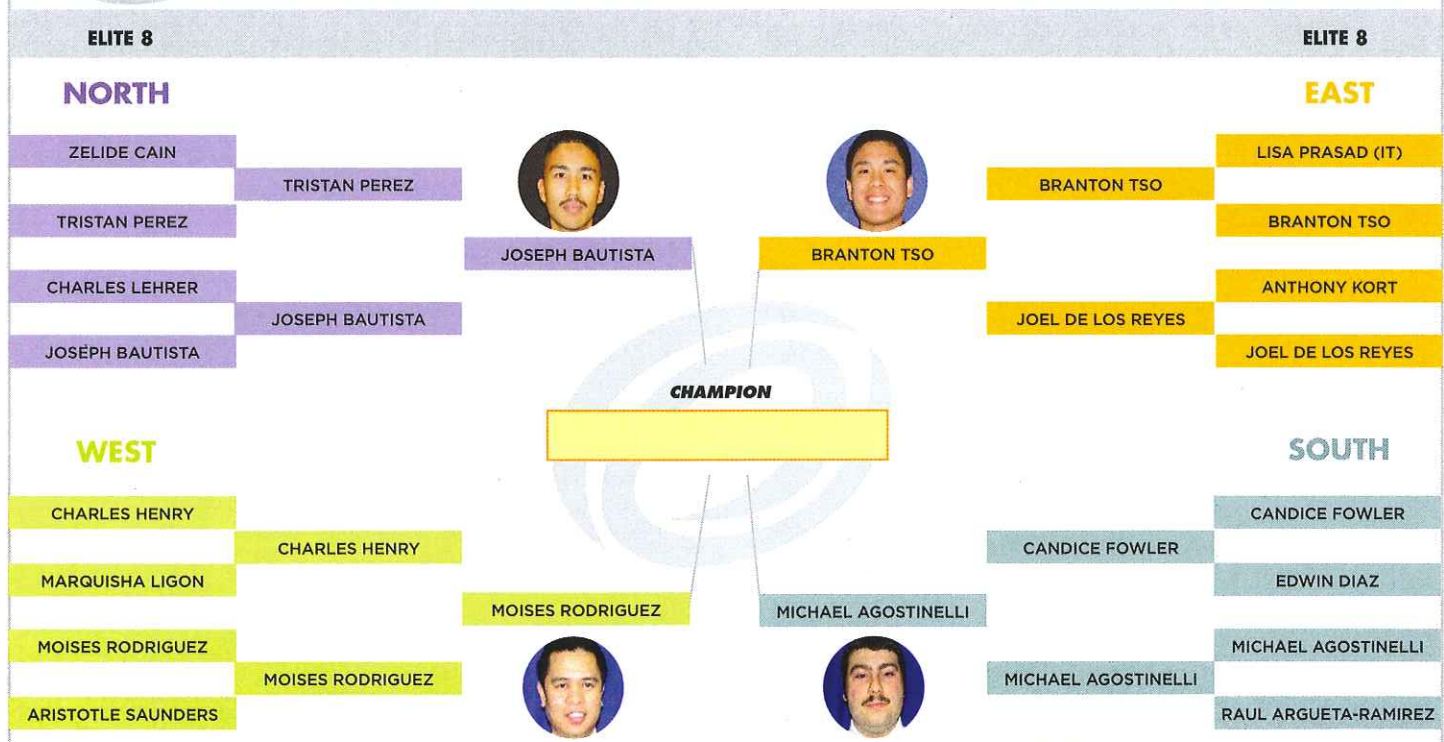

Hire Date: 04/20/2006
 Russell Mackey / Terminal Manager IT
 Paul Liu / Supervisor

Michael Agostinelli had the International Terminal buzzing throughout the tournament as he roared past Otto Hoffens, Francisco Villanueva, Marilou Ventayen and Steve Ho. Raul Argueta-Ramirez gave Agostinelli a scare in the Sweet 16, but once he steadied his nerves, Michael rolled through, then taking out the last female screener, Candice Fowler, in the Elite 8. Agostinelli has incredible concentration and shows no sign of nerves going into the Final Four. He takes the South Division.

DIVISION #1 BRACKET CHAMPION

Epi Aumavae (1)

Hire Date: 11/03/2002

Gerardo Sanchez / Assistant Terminal Manager-Baggage
James Hawkins / Supervisor

Epi Aumavae was seeded No. 1 in this year's Checked Baggage Competition and never looked back. Epi defeated Vinodral Rawal, James Cajulao, and Supervisor Ray Padua to move into the Final Four for the first time. She is the only female screener to make it into this year's Elite 8.

DIVISION #3 BRACKET CHAMPION

Tanakorn Jayankura (22)

Hire Date: 10/27/2002

Gerardo Sanchez / Assistant Terminal Manager-Baggage
Jesse Alicante / Supervisor

Tanakorn Jayankura was the last to qualify into the Final Four defeating Nerio Felixberto, Kathi Byrd, and Timothy Zoucha along the way. Jayankura was in one of the first new hire classes back in October 2002 and will likely bring a lot of experience going into the Final. But can he take down last year's winner?

DIVISION #2 BRACKET CHAMPION

Andrew Amaya (21)

Hire Date: 11/17/2002

Gerardo Sanchez / Assistant Terminal Manager-Baggage
Alexandra Hodel / Supervisor

Andrew Amaya has looked strong since the Round 4 by getting past Sandra Ramos, Ananias Guion, and Steve Thai. Amaya posted some of the highest scores throughout the competition and looks tough to beat going into the Final Four.

DIVISION #4 BRACKET CHAMPION

Anthony Calmerin (10)

Hire Date: 12/01/2002

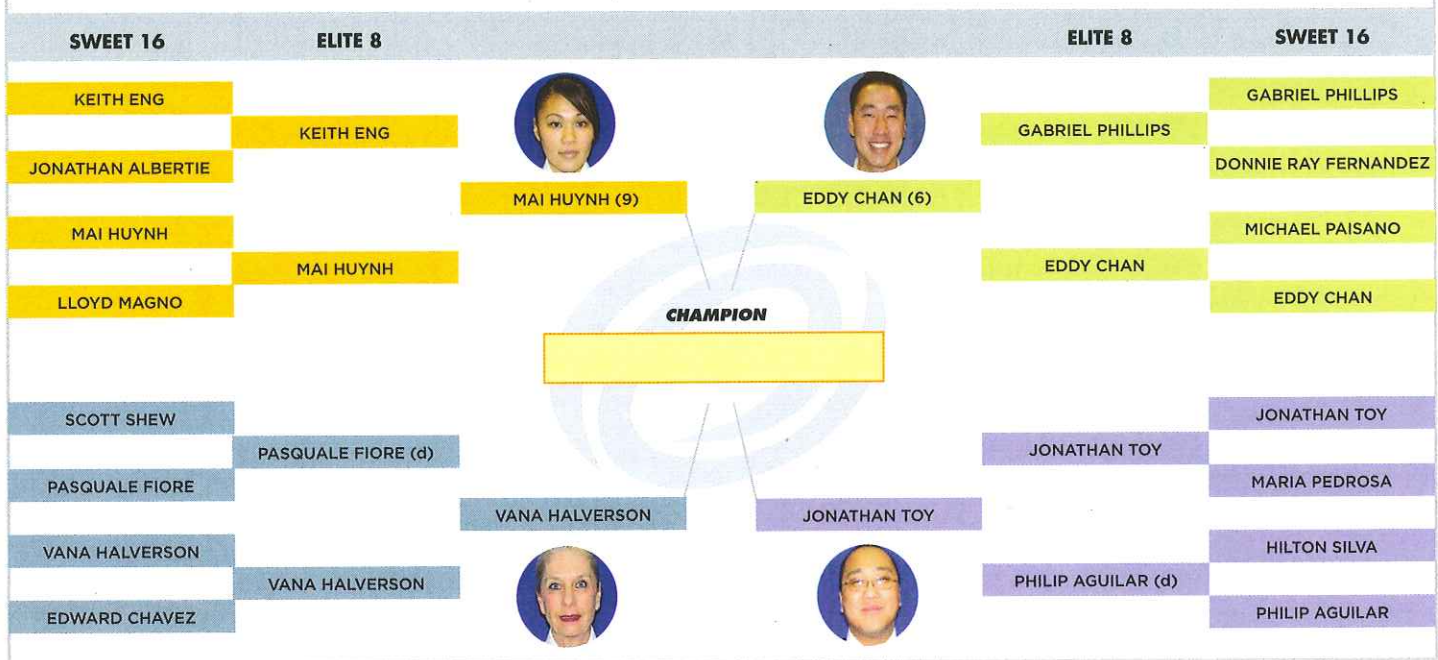

Gerardo Sanchez / Assistant Terminal Manager-Baggage
Alexandra Hodel / Supervisor

Anthony Calmerin is last year's defending champion and looks like the one to beat in this year's Final Four. Calmerin displayed incredible nerves of steel in 2009 and has continued strong in 2010 by defeating Supervisor Alexandra Hodel, last year's Final Four finalist Fernando Artiga, and a tough Joy Alandy. Calmerin's obvious experience under pressure along with his speed and accuracy may be tough to overcome.

BEHAVIOR DETECTION OFFICER (BDO) TOURNAMENT

DIVISION #1 BRACKET CHAMPION

Mai Huynh (9)

Hire Date: 01/27/2005

Bianca Wright / Assistant Terminal Manager-Layered Security

Many consider Mai Huynh the one to beat in the Final Four after she took out the No. 1 seed, Keith Eng, in the Elite 8. Huynh's ability to focus and concentrate under extreme pressure will make her a formidable competitor. She's probably had the most challenging draw having to get past No. 8 Lloyd Magno, as well.

DIVISION #3 BRACKET CHAMPION

Eddy Chan (6)

Hire Date: 09/10/2007

Bianca Wright / Assistant Terminal Manager-Layered Security
Rowell Nerida / Supervisor

Eddy Chan has been moving confidently through his Division #3 Bracket taking out Michael Paisano and Gabriel Phillips (3). Chan will have his hands full in the Final Four, but looks like he could be peaking at just the right time.

DIVISION #2 BRACKET CHAMPION

Vana Halverson (13)

Hire Date: 11/17/2002

Bianca Wright / Assistant Terminal Manager-Layered Security
Matthew Findley / Supervisor

Vana Halverson got a little bit of a break in the Elite 8 after her opponent couldn't continue, but she's ready to make the best of her luck in the Final Four. She won't be a pushover by any means. Halverson also defeated a tough Scott Shew (5) in the Sweet 16.

DIVISION #4 BRACKET CHAMPION

Jonathan Toy (7)

Hire Date: 08/04/2005

Bianca Wright / Assistant Terminal Manager-Layered Security
Mai Huynh / Supervisor

Jonathan Toy, like Vana Halverson in the Division #2 Bracket, advanced after his opponent withdrew, but Toy brings plenty of experience into the Final Four. Toy will be facing his own supervisor, Mai Huynh, in the Final.
