

U.S. Department of Justice

Office of the Inspector General

August 24, 2007

Dear Recipient:

The Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General (OIG) and Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR) are conducting a joint investigation of allegations regarding Monica Goodling's and others' hiring and other personnel decisions. In the course of our investigation, we learned that you may have been interviewed by or spoken with Ms. Goodling, Jan Williams, Angela Williamson, Kyle Sampson, or others in the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) in connection with a position at the Department.

We are seeking your assistance in connection with our investigation. Please provide information about your interview by responding to the written questions set out in the attached survey. Depending upon the address information we received for you, we have sent you these questions either by e-mail, U.S. postal mail, or both methods. If you received the questions by both e-mail and U.S. postal mail, please choose which method you prefer to use to respond. You should not respond by both methods. If you respond by U.S. postal mail, please return your response in the enclosed self-addressed stamped envelope. If you respond by e-mail, you should send your response to

If you received the survey by U.S. postal mail, but would like to respond electronically by e-mail, please contact one of the persons listed below to obtain an electronic copy of the survey.

The relevant time frame for all of the questions below is between January 1, 2004, and April 2007. Include as much detail in your answers as possible. If you need additional space to answer questions, please attach additional pages, or use the back of these pages.

We would appreciate receiving your response to this questionnaire by September 5, 2007. If you have any questions regarding this questionnaire, please call or e-mail either Office of the Inspector General Investigative Counsel Mark Masling (202-353-3530; mark.masling@usdoj.gov) or Office of Professional Responsibility Associate Counsel James Duncan (202-514-3365; james.duncan@usdoj.gov).

Sincerely,

Glenn Fine
