I'm going now, to bed that is. I've noticed that over the last three weeks, there hasn't been one time that you were going to call me back, that you in fact did, resulting in me having to call you. I'm starting to take this very personal.

I was trying to tell you tonight, not to forget about Friday and our plans. You said you had an idea, but still haven't said what that is.

Also, to catch up on some things that are running behind, I was going to ask you if we had between 18, to 2,000 available. Some of that would also be for Friday into the weekend.

I'm off to Rikers in the AM for ceremonies and interviews, so if you choose to ignore me tomorrow, e-mail and let me know what you think.

Have a safe trip, be careful and I love you.

I'm not sure how to take this other than it's intentional. You told me we would talk about a Friday and not only did we not, but you left without even calling me. It's pretty insulting.

I'm glad to have heard from you today. I was very angry that you just left and didn't even call.

I was hoping to talk to you yesterday about my intent to buy this apartment because it defiantly needs work and I can't make this commitment if I'm not sure I can get this done. You keep saying don't worry, but I have to worry.

I've got to talk to you about ideas for Friday. Call me.

Love,

Larry:

Changed my mind about secondary mail. Yes, it's 4:30AM, just can't sleep.

I know you say not to worry about certain things, but if I don't worry, no one else is doing it for me, therefore I can't sleep. I've wanted to talk to you about this apartment but you've just been too busy. I've put together the down payment, but the money that I would have used to fix it up had to go toward the DP because of my credit history and the co-op in NJ. We went from 10%, $17,000. down to 20%, $35,000. down. Therefore, I've got to make sure we can do the renovations, mostly, the new kitchen and the two small bath rooms, or else I can't do this because it's not livable as is. Otherwise, I think I'm good to go.

Now, as for FD. His father talked to Guy on Friday but nothing went onto his schedule. D's got to call today and make an appointment. It may be good if you go with him, just to have a little more input as to why we think that he's getting railroaded. I've explained everything to Dan Donovan, his Chief of Staff, but with D there, it may be better coming from you.

Bad news, or it could be good, Rudy's nephew in the Tradewaste as been appointed from Inspector General to Deputy Commissioner of Investigations. That's how he's aware of everything going on. He's overseeing all of the investigations. It's not only the internal oversight stuff, but it's every investigation. That could be bad for me for the moment, but I think overall, good for us if Harding does his job and gets aggressive.

Stay on top of Jimmy Wood and push the Security control issue. His notes and records will be helpful with the TWC if need be.

Tell Frank my brother had a big blow up with some of the lower level guys at his place and then got a call from a senior VP in Texas with an offer to stay. He nicely told him to kiss off. He got a little nervous because he still doesn't know what he's making. Also he wants to get the benefit package started for his daughter.

I've got a busy day. Not as busy as you with NATO, DeNiro, Dave Q, Jim Schaeffer and Mickey Mouse, Russia, etc..... Perhaps one day when you're not so busy or it's not so secretive, you'll take me to see DeNiro. LOL Or better yet, we can just hang out.

Love,

B

Russia To Debate Yeltsin Impeachment

MOSCOW (AP) – Russian President Boris Yeltsin's foes in parliament today reiterated their intention to support an impeachment vote expected this week. The leaders of Russia's Communist Party, which has led the bid to impeach Yeltsin, met to discuss tactics for the impeachment debate scheduled to begin Thursday in the lower house of parliament, the State Duma. Yeltsin's rivals have been trying for years to remove him from office, and the current impeachment charges are the strongest yet. Still, the motion has little chance of success because even if the Duma approves it, Yeltsin cannot be ousted unless it also is passed by the upper house of parliament and the Supreme and Constitutional Courts.

U.S. Says Serb Pullback Not Enough

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) – Yugoslavia announced a partial withdrawal of its forces from Kosovo today, but President Clinton and NATO said it wasn't enough to stop allied bombing. The announcement, apparently aimed at maintaining momentum toward a peace deal, gave no indication of how many troops have been withdrawn or how many were left. Meanwhile, NATO carried out daylight bombings on several towns in central and western Serbia, killing four civilians and smashing a factory in one 20-minute bombardment, Yugoslav media reported.

China Breaks Military Ties With US

BEIJING (AP) -- China broke off military ties and various other contacts with the United States today. Chinese officials also demanded those responsible for NATO's bombing of its embassy in Yugoslavia be "severely" punished. China's suspension of high-level military ties – and talks over arms control, international security and human rights – signaled one of the lowest ebbs for China-U.S. relations in 20 years. Meanwhile, thousands protested at the U.S. Embassy in Beijing for a third day.

More Protests In China Feared

BEIJING (AP) – Protests against NATO's accidental bombing of the Chinese Embassy in Yugoslavia ebbed Tuesday, but the U.S. ambassador warned that the return to Beijing of the remains of three Chinese killed in the attack could touch off more unrest. A special plane bearing the ashes of the three journalists was due in the capital Wednesday morning. A planned live television broadcast of the arrival was expected to heighten emotions over the bombing.

NATO Doubts Kosovo Troop Pullout

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) – NATO says it does not believe Yugoslav President Slobodan Milosevic has begun withdrawing his forces from Kosovo. White House spokesman Joe Lockhart said "you can probably put this in the category of another long list of promises that Milosevic has made that he hasn't kept." Five people were reported killed as allied attacks continued today. NATO said there was no evidence that Milosevic has withdrawn any of the estimated 40,000 troops and special police he has deployed in the Serbian province since he launched a crackdown in February.

U.S. Doesn't Expect China Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) – Defense Secretary William Cohen said today the Clinton administration did not think China would block a diplomatic solution to the conflict in Yugoslavia. Cohen told a Senate Appropriations subcommittee hearing that China should accept President Clinton's apologies in the accidental bombing of their embassy in Belgrade. Chinese President Jiang Zemin had not yet responded to a request by Clinton to talk by phone.

Also tomorrow I've got to take care of those things we talked about a few weeks ago. If possible, I need about 2 to 2,5 to take care of it.

Also, I've got to talk to D about that project. The smallest contract was in fact issued, however there's about five more equivalent contracts coming up over the next two years. Maybe you can bring him Thursday before my shooting in Montclair. We'll talk.

Call me in the morning.

I'm tied up all day going until about midnight tomorrow night.

The lawyer's sending my contract to the office tomorrow. I talked to my land lord tonight and she said that as long as the plans didn't with the outside structure of the building, she would approve them and that I didn't need board approval. So, hopefully I can go to contract within the next day or so.

I've got a bank that appears will do what I need, but they need the contract first so hopefully, that will start rolling too. I've got my three years taxes, five paystubs, financial disclosures, and every other piece of paper they want so they should be happy.

I think we have the down payment accounted for, I just need what I told you about to cover other stuff where I've run short while trying to put this together. If they start talking about points because of my credit history, I might have to get you involved in that conversation because I've been told it's not a must and they will back down if push comes to shove.

I'll let you know. We'll talk sometime tomorrow.

From:	BBKerik

Larry,

As I thought about our conversation today, I became upset and almost insulted by a comment that you made today. It's really not as bad as it sounds, however you made a statement "I am your best friend" like I was unaware of that. Regardless of our arguments, disagreements or perils, you are and always will be my best friend and I that's why I feel that I have the right to challenge you when I think something is wrong.

In my entire life I have never, and I don't believe that there will ever be a day that I would do things for anyone as I have you. I have put my reputation and integrity on the line defending whatever you have asked without question. I wouldn't do that for anyone. I should hope you are my "best friend," I'd hate to think that I would be doing this for anyone else.

On another note, I believe that you know what you're talking about when it comes to investment banking, etc., but all I'm saying is stop trying to reach for the stars when there's things right here on earth that we should be tapping into. You yourself have told me that Andy said "you find the buildings, and I'll finance them," to build your own portfolio. Well, people are walking all over this city looking for property that don't have the friends that Stone infers he is to you, and they're buying shit like it's going out of style.

Lastly, I hope you weren't serious when you said that you live just like me. Remember last week when Frank wanted me to go to Englishtown. Do you think that I didn't want to go? I didn't want to go as much as I haven't wanted to meet you downtown at night for dinner for the last few months. I feel like I'm on welfare and I can't stand it when you or Frank pay, so I won't go. I can't afford to go out everyday to eat, to have a million dollar house, to put in a new pool and spend $35,000. on attorney fees for the luxury of that pool. I can't go to the Caribbean or Florida on a three day stint just because my dick gets hard or because I need a rest. I don't, nor would I spend thousands of dollars of my own money playing I spy with the feds or Washington, unless I had it like that. I can't go out and buy a motorcycle or car, or a Rolex watch at the drop of a dime, like I have watched you do. Without your help my wedding would have never happened and now, I'm walking on eggshells until this apartment is done. A bullshit $170,000., I had to beg, borrow and suck dick for the down payment and I'm still shitting over the $5,000. I need for closing if it happens. Then the renovations. You've said don't worry and you've never let me down but in 7 months, Hala's having the baby and it's killing me. And again, I feel like some sort of schmuck. Without you I couldn't do it. I've run out of pension funds and loans, and have no one else to help me except for Hala's family and I would stay here in this 95 degree apartment, living in the air conditioned bedroom before I'd do that. Anyway, just wanted to let you know, I don't think you live like me. So that's why I don't want to sit around for years, reaching for the stars. Some extra monthly income as a result of some small time investment would be just fine. Something is better than nothing, and without you, that's what I've gotten.

In closing, don't ever think that I don't know you're my best friend. I'd hate to put all this energy, effort and love into a person that didn't feel the same.

I love you,

B

David,

First of all, I am not in a position to answer questions as I was not involved in the conversation that took place between the four of them. I merely introduced him to S/A Uher, and left them in my office.

I am also concerned that he is attempting to drag my name into the middle of this to influence the outcome. (inferred by USA's office)

If a confirmation of that meeting and its contents is required to dismiss the charges, an interview or deposition of the three agents would be enough. The AUSA is just waiting for me to make a call. That's what they would need to give this the attention they'd like. I'm sure you know what that means.

All that aside, he knows I've been order not to get involved while serving in my present capacity.

I'll stay in touch.

Bernie,

How are you, Hala, Celine and Joe? I trust all is well.

I have a copy of your response to David. I would never drag you into anything, actually quite the contrary.

I am sorry that I have to burden you with any of this at all. But I need you and my family needs you. I have done my best to keep you out of it all along, as I am told to my own peril. But as a friend I was mindful of the sensitivity of your position. This has been a difficult and lonely time and I miss you very much. Now I need you as a friend to do nothing more than be willing to state the truth as to the things you do know.

1. Bern, when you first introduced me to Gary, one of the concerns you had was that i never get exposed, hurt or put in a position to testify. Gary said to you that i would never be put in a position to testify, where a wire or be exposed to prosecution on information furnished and developed by me. You said you have been doing this a long time and if the bad guys found out I was working with the bureau they would try to blame me. You were right!

2. The reason you introduced me to the bureau started with the threats made against me by garafolo, whom I had never even met at this point.

The ausa that had started this case has not been involved since a year ago. Out of the 19 defendants, people whom I don't know nor have met, 17 plead out. I was told by my former council he has never seen people get deals that good. I was supposed to have a hearing last spring that I am told would have resulted in a dismissal, but you would have had to testify in open court. I did not want to get you involved in that at that time. Now that there is know one left, other than myself and one other whom I don't know, never met and is not in the same count as I am, the ausa is not interested in trying this case against me. After a status conference last wed. the ausa spoke with an attorney who has not signed on as my attorney yet and myself. He said the only thing they have is 2 or 3 people they made deals with who will testify that I said I had to pay someone inside Willis coron. He also acknowledged that no one was ever paid in Willis. He said he would like to try to get rid of this case. But that would require me to plea, and I will not plea as I am innocent. He also said that originally all they wanted was for me to testify, but that is not how the agent presented it to me in 99, and that what I said in 96 to Gary was different from what I said when interviewed in 99 by Leo. There is a good reason for that because what I said to Gary in 96 was information I had gotten completely from Steve blanco and not anything I knew first hand and Gary knew that but had never made the distinction in his inserts. What I was asked in 99 was what I knew firsthand about u.s. bridge and of course it was different from what I had developed at Gary's request. The ausa does not know anything about the points I have asked you in this letter at this time or that I am even thinking about you. I don't have counsel at this time and the attorney I am speaking with will only take this if you are willing to tell him you remember those points because there is little time. If not I am representing myself at trial DEC 3. Wish me luck. I may need to call you as witness at that time. There is a status conference Friday 16 Nov. and the attorney has to enter his appearance or not at that time. So as u can see I would need you to speak to him by tomorrow. I do have an investigator at least, his name is Bob Debellis, he retired from the bureau less than 2 yrs. ago after 34 yrs. The attorney believes this will end without trial with your calling him. Please be there for me.

I often hold Ava and I think of Celine. Isn't it the best. I really miss and love you guys so much.

Love,
Larry

In the event that I am called to testify, I must tell you that my recollection of the events is not consistent with what you remember. And this would have a severely negative impact on your credibility.

I would do anything for you, but as I've said since the indictment, in my present position it is inappropriate for me to discuss the case with you any further. I'm sure you understand.

I'll talk to you after January 1, 2002.

Thank you for responding. It made me smile to hear back from you. I miss our time together a great deal and cannot wait for this to be over. I have reread emails you have sent to me over the years, from time to time, I guess out of loneliness. When things were important to you, I was there for you. In one particular email you got upset with me because I said to you that "I am your best friend" and you said like I am unaware of that. You went on to say that "regardless of our arguments, disagreements or perils, you are and always will be my best friend and that is why I feel that I have the right to challenge you when I think something is wrong." I still feel this way this incident is not enough to change that. So forgive me for writing back.

I am confident our recollections are the same. There is no reason for it to be otherwise.

I wish I did not even have to address this with you until after Jan 1 2002, I have tried my best to avoid that. But I just don't know what else to do. I need your HELP. You are much better at this than I am and it sucks doing this without your input and advice. Even if you can think of a way for us to speak in person it will be very helpful, not to mention that I would relish the moment. Don't make me beg, it sounds sexual.

My new cell # is 908-295-8269

I just don't know what else to do.
