

Ruth Ann Tipton

Ruth Ann Tipton was born December 2, 1949, in Alexandria, Virginia to Gladys Ellen Buckland Tipton and Guy Lowman Tipton. She spent most of her childhood in Prince Georges County where she attended the public schools. After high school she took secretarial courses and later studied computer technology. She worked at the Kennedy Center for several years before taking an administrative/paralegal position with Bonat, Inc., where she worked from 1990-2006.

Ruth Ann had an adventurous spirit and during her younger years she had a love for motorcycles and car racing. She later took an interest in wearing fashionable clothing and hosting while working at the Kennedy Center. Ruth Ann had an outgoing personality and always had a smile and words of inspiration for those that she knew.

Ruth Ann found time to volunteer with several organizations dedicated to helping the poor during her latter years and was one of the founding members of a community church for the downtrodden.

Ruth Ann is the last surviving member of her family. However, she leaves a host of many cherished friends who will miss her dearly.
