

AAA Commonwealth District

BROOKE POINT

★★★

Coach:

Jeff Berry

2005: 7-4, 4-2

Starters: 6/6

Brooke Point should challenge Massaponax for the district crown with a slew of experience and skill players like all-district RB Chase Barnett and WR Tim Turner (34 receptions, 6 TDs).

MASSAPONAX

★★★

Coach:

Eric Ludden

2005: 12-1, 6-0

Starters: 3/6

Senior FB-LB Josh Wine and senior G-DE Anthony Mihota (Virginia) will need to perform above expectations for Massaponax to return to the state semifinals.

ALBERMARLE

★★★

Coach:

Rick Vrhovac

2005: 2-8, 0-6

Starters: 9/8

With nearly all its starters returning, Albemarle should improve and could sneak up on some teams in the Commonwealth.

COLONIAL FORGE

★★★

Coach:

Tim Coleman

2005: 7-3, 3-3

Starters: 4/5

Don't be surprised if the Eagles exceed expectations, but to do so the team will need to mature. RB Ricky Lewis will have to shoulder much of the offensive load.

STAFFORD

★★★

Coach:

Chad Lewis*

2005: 4-6, 3-3

Starters: 2/6

Lewis has implemented the option to take advantage of the skills of QB Torrey Smith, a Maryland recruit who is expected to play wide receiver in college.

MOUNTAIN VIEW

★

Coach:

Eric Cooke

2005: 0-10, 0-6

Starters: 6/7

In its second year of varsity football, the Wildcats' strength will be up the middle where they have RB Malcolm Roach, FB John O'Quinn and TE Jacob Johnson back.

N. STAFFORD

★

Coach:

Tap Pace*

2005: 7-3, 4-2

Starters: 1/6

With a new coach and one returning starter on offense (WR Kevin Ives), it will be hard for the Wolverines to keep pace in the district.
