

AAA Liberty District

STONE BRIDGE

★★★★

Coach: Mickey Thompson

2005: 12-2, 7-0

Starters: 8/4

OL-DL Andrew Nuss (Notre Dame), QB Terence Glenn (2,504 offensive yards, 25 TDs) and DB Jeron Gouveia helped the Bulldogs make the Division 5 state final; now they add O'Connell senior transfer RB Devon Brown (1,282 yards).

MADISON

★★★

Coach:

Gordon Leib

2005: 7-4, 6-1

Starters: 5/5

Senior DL Dean Kenny helped the Warhawks hold five opponents to a touchdown or less last season. The team has reached the playoffs four of the past five years but lacks the depth of some of those units.

LANGLEY

★★

Coach:

John Howerton

2005: 4-6, 4-3

Starters: 6/6

More athletic than in the past, the Saxons also have a beefy line, bolstered by four-year starter Marshall Moore (6-3, 285). Senior RB Josh Segal (1,030 yards) is back.

MARSHALL

★★

Coach:

J.T. Biddison

2005: 5-5, 2-5

Starters: 3/6

The Statesmen were three- and one-point losses from being 7-3. This year, FB-LB Frank Howell and TE-DE Ryan Goss are two of seven seniors on the team.

SOUTH LAKES

★★

Coach: John Ellenberger

2005: 3-7, 2-5

Starters: 6/6

OL Yaky Ibia and teammates are switching to the spread option offense to best utilize RB Gabe Itoka, QB Amir Gibreel and WR A.J. Price, a Flint Hill transfer.

JEFFERSON

★

Coach:

Tim Puvogel*

2005: 5-5, 3-4

Starters: 3/3

Puvogel, the Colonials' defensive coordinator a few years ago, inherits senior WR-DBs Ryan Sullivan and Connor Russomanno.

McLEAN

★

Coach:

Rick Rivera

2005: 3-7, 2-5

Starters: 2/2

Looking for their first winning season since 2001, the Highlanders will lean on QB John Scholla, RB-LB Torey Beiro, OL-DL Amro Shihada and DB Brian McElhanev.

W.T. WOODSON

★

Coach:

Trey Taylor*

2005: 3-7, 2-5

Starters: 7/5

OL-DL Dan Semler and WR-CB Greg Gibbons were starters on the 2004 Division 5 region championship team. The Cavaliers will be young in spots, including QB.
